Building the Church

LIVING THE JUST WORD

July 28 - August 1, 2010

A RETREAT
FOR ALL AGES
SET ON THE BEAUTIFUL
UNIVERSITY
PORTLAND

“This experience is the renewal I need each year - it reminds me of church at its best and it is the inspiration I draw on throughout the year.”

Keynote Speaker and Conference Theme

Fr. Ray Kemp, will guide us to an understanding and experience of being formed and transformed into a church that opens itself to conversion, reconciliation and justice. We will look at how we have received the Gospel, our call to conversion and reconciliation, and the experience of God's transforming love that pulls us to a life of serving others.

He will explore this year's theme, Living the Just Word, in four keynote presentations:

1. A Church that Receives and Incarnates the Gospel
2. Conversion Church that is the Heart of Disciples Becoming Apostles
3. The Ministry of Reconciliation Within and Without
4. Building a Church for the Mission of Serving the Kingdom

He comes to Summer Conference with enthusiasm and excitement to help us develop a new appreciation for one another and the community we are building through sharing and listening. He comes to help cultivate a sense of common ground and to be church with and for each other.

Fr. Ray Kemp has a life-long passion for social justice with a deep interest in pastoral theology, liturgy, preaching, Christian initiation, community organizing, urban development and politics, and young adult Catholics.

He teaches theology at Georgetown University and is director of both Faith in the City and Preaching the Just Word—a national program sponsored by Woodstock Theological Center to assist ministers of the gospel in preaching biblical and social justice more effectively.

St. Mary's Seminary and University (1967); Former pastor in urban African-American parishes in Washington D.C. (1974-1992); Secretary for Parish Life and Worship, Archdiocese of Washington (1981-1986); Adjunct faculty at Georgetown University; His publications include Journey in Faith and articles in Worship, The Catechumenate, Church, Liturgy 90, and the National Catholic Reporter; Board Member of the D.C. Central Kitchen and College Campus Kitchens.

WHAT IS SUMMER CONFERENCE?

For over 28 years the Summer Conference has provided participants with time for reflection and renewal.

The annual Conference themes explore the challenges of living our faith. How do we make holy our chosen roles as parents, teachers, business owners or employees and create a bit more of the Kingdom of God here in our time? We believe that when we explore ways to live out the Gospel in our families and communities, we are building the Church.

That Benedictine philosophy of integrating work and prayer, that comes from our roots at Mount Angel Abbey, continues to permeate the activities of the Summer Conference.

THE GOALS OF SUMMER CONFERENCE

- To provide clergy, religious and lay people of all ages an opportunity to deepen their faith through study, prayer, art and play in a communal setting.
- To expose participants to outstanding theologians and inspiring people of faith.
- To model a Catholic faith-based community to each other and to our children.
- To seek to understand more honestly the mystery of God and the mystery of person within the community of Catholic faith.

HISTORY

The Summer Conference, originally known as the Mount Angel Summer Conference, was hosted by Mount Angel Abbey for the first 25 years beginning in 1983. A change in Conference venue and sponsorship was needed in 2007, the 25th year of the Conference. In 2008 long-time conference participants formed Engelberg Conference a non-profit organization and re-initiated Conference in its new location at the University of Portland. The Conference continues to maintain strong ties to Mount Angel Abbey.

GENERAL INFORMATION ABOUT THE WEEK

The conference begins on Wednesday afternoon with registration from 2:00-4:30 p.m. The following days include study, prayer, and play for both children and adults. Afternoon recreation opportunities include swimming, games, walks, reading, conversation, or even a nap. Evening options include adult social time, a movie night for kids, fine arts, music, or games on the lawn. We conclude our time together with Mass on Sunday.

Residence facilities are available with three meals a day. Day-use facilities are available for commuters -with or without meals.

Guests may also choose to come to the Keynote Lecture Series only. (See costs on page 2).

To register for the Conference or Keynote Lecture Series, please mail in the registration form on page 3 by June 30th. This information can also be found on the web at www.summerconf.org.

Come to the University of Portland for Summer Conference this year - together we are 'Building the Church'.

YOUNG ADULTS!

Friday evening after dinner ...Just Jeremy

Father Jeremy will meet with the young adults to hear from them their hopes and concerns about the Church, the world, and their own futures. He too will share the same from his own life. This is a chance for those who knew Fr. Jeremy when they were younger to catch up with him again, or a chance for others to meet him for a first time. Old Summer Conference young adults are invited to bring new friends.

Class Descriptions

Adult Classes

PERIOD A

1. KEYNOTE ADDRESS BY FR. RAY KEMP
-see front page for more information.

PERIOD B

2. DIALOGUE WITH FR. RAY KEMP

An opportunity for additional exploration of the specific topics presented in the keynote talk through discussion in a small group setting.

3. WORDS

Fr. Jeremy Driscoll, O.S.B.

A poetical and theological exploration of the amazing power of words. What does it mean that human beings can communicate and enter into the deepest communion by means of precise articulate sounds that emerge from the throat? What does it mean to say that God speaks, that Jesus is called the Word of God? What are biblical understandings of the word? What is the poetic word? We will read biblical texts, poetic texts, theological texts and then examine some of the texts of the new translation of the Mass that will be used starting in Advent 2011.

4. WISDOM, IMAGINATION AND COURAGE: LET’S GET US SOME OF THAT!

Karen Eifler

With many things conspiring to standardize schooling and other institutions, what are parents, teachers and human services professionals, who recognize that their children and clients defy the “one size fits all” approach to education, to do? Using lenses of Multiple Intelligence Theory and insights from the exploding knowledge of human brains now available to interested lay people (not just neuroscientists), we will explore strategies for arousing the genius and passion of all those worthy souls who demand the best from us.

PERIOD C

5. GLORIOUS CATHOLIC WRITERS & OTHER WILD AMBITIONS

Brian Doyle and Andy Oldham

A wandering exploration of glorious Catholic writers, and what is Catholic writing anyway? ... and pondering forms of storytelling, and little crazy exercises for smelling stories and getting them started, and muttered sidelong jokes, and other ephemeral entertainments.

6. GOD, SCIENCE, AND DIVINE ACTION IN THE UNIVERSE

Fr. Thomas Hosinski

The traditional Christian doctrine of God seems to be in some tension with modern science and with what is revealed of God in the person of Jesus Christ. The course will focus on the three traditional modes of divine action: God as Creator, God as Redeemer, and God as Sanctifier. It will employ insights drawn from process theology, from modern science, and from a reconsideration of Jesus’ life and teachings to suggest a new way of thinking about God and God’s action in the universe.

7. PRAYING WITH OUR OWN SACRED IMAGES AND ART

Val Hornburg

Create your own holy cards to assist you on your spiritual journey and in discerning God’s movement in your life. Each participant will use a huge variety of possible images to create at least four personal SoulCollage© Prayer cards. All participants will be successful in this no-fail, relaxing and creative class that effortlessly draws from the deepest of our souls.

Intergenerational Classes

PERIOD B

8. STAINED GLASS

Bill Zuelke

Every student will be provided the instructions and materials to produce one project under one square foot in size. Using the copper foil technique, each participant will choose a design or create one, select colored glass, learn to cut and grind glass to shape, foil and solder the pieces. Gr. 10 and up. (Gr. 7-9 with a parent working together on one project) $10 Lab Fee.

9. AN ICON PAINTING EXPERIENCE

Ina Hecker

In this class students will learn the steps to painting/writing an icon, get to know the traditional materials, and try some of the different steps. We will also explore what icons are, why we venerate them and why they are important in our Catholic culture today. Gr. 5 and up. $10 Lab Fee.

10. TAI CHI

Doug Cooper

Tai Chi is one of oldest and most practiced of the internal martial arts. It is performed with slow, even movements that coordinate mind and body. Tai chi can adapt to any level of fitness -from young athletes to older, less flexible adults, so everyone is welcome. We will learn the basics and opening of the Yang style form. Gr. 5 and up.

11. FUN FOR ALL - ALL FOR FUN

Becca Otto, Isaac Otto, and Mike Hughes

Traditional and innovative new games will help all increase their fitness while having fun. Games include team handball, frisbee golf, dodge ball, floor hockey, kick ball, creative volleyball games and the like. Teamwork, play, sportsmanship, and fun are our goals. Gr. 5 and up.

PERIOD C

12. MINIATURE PURSUIT: SCALE MODEL CONSTRUCTION

David Otto

Participants will choose one of several scale model projects to make in class, such as a rocket, trebuchet, house or airplane. Descriptions of project choices will be sent upon receipt of registration for this class (also check the summerconf.org web site). No prior model building experience is necessary -a novice can learn basic modeling skills and complete their working model during the conference. All instructions, building materials and tools will be provided. Gr.5 and up. $10 Lab Fee.

13. THE ARTFUL LETTER

Kathryn Hart

We will approach calligraphy as an art form drawing upon right brain spatial skills. The distinction between drawing and writing will blur as we explore the shapes and forms of a single alphabet. Suitable for beginner and experienced lettering artists. Your fee will include art supplies that can be brought home with you. Gr.5 and up. $10 Lab Fee.

14. A POSEIDON ADVENTURE

Chris Hughes

An afternoon of gentle exercise in the water. We will use the shallow and deep end of the pool to move, stretch and challenge our bodies gently. Lifeuard will be on duty. Equipment to assist us will be provided. We will be exercising with our heads out of the water, hair can stay dry for those concerned. Gr.8 and up.

15. TENNIS ANYONE?

Susie Gross and Aaron Gross

For anyone who wants to try tennis for the first time or wants to improve their tennis skills. This will be a class that involves all participants. Come join us! Bring a racquet if you have one! Gr.2 and up.

Children’s Classes

PERIOD A

16. PROMISE-A PreK-Gr.1 - Sadie Hjorth

17. KARING KIDS-A Gr.2-4 - Tara Barsotti

23. CONFERENCE CHRONICLES

Karyn Andriesen and Mary Mallon-Behrens

Ready, Set, Go! This class will produce the daily paper with all the news of the week. Openings for writers, photographers and cartoonist. Bring a note pad and an inquisitive mind and we’re ready to go! Gr.5-12.

PERIOD C

24. FUN IN THE SUN

Slip N Slide... pools... bubbles... all hopefully sunshine. For the kids and adults who missed playtime during afternoon break. Babies thru Gr.4 and of course parents!

25. OVER THE EDGE PUPPET THEATER

Monica DeBruyn

Choose from a wide variety of puppets, masks, and costumes to be part of the show or sit back and enjoy the performance. Thrilling drama! Spectacular sets! Hilarious special effects! All energy levels welcome. Pre-K and up.

“It is said that the Gospel of John is a book in which “a child can wade and an elephant can swim.” In a very similar way, the Summer Conference entertains and enculturates my grade school child, challenges and inspires my teenage children, while it informs, reforms and transforms my wife and I. Summer Conference is the highlight of our year.”
