A RETREAT FOR ALL AGES SET ON THE BEAUTIFUL CAMPUS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PORTLAND

KEYNOTE SPEAKER AND CONFERENCE THEME

The 2013 Keynote Speaker, David W. Fagerberg

He has published numerous articles on liturgical theology, and is author of Theologia Prima (2003), The Size of Chesterton's Catholicism (1998), and most recently, On Liturgical Asceticism (2013).

His long-time interest in G. K. Chesterton and C. S. Lewis is expressed through his writing for Gilbert! magazine, and serving on the editorial board of the Chesterton Review. He counts it a Chestertonian accomplishment to have been married 40 years to Elizabeth without any diminishment in the “thrill of domesticity.”

He holds an M.Div. from Luther Northwestern Seminary; an M.A. from St. John's University, Collegeville; an S.T.M. from Yale Divinity School; and a Ph.D. in Liturgical Theology from Yale University.

David W. Fagerberg is an Associate Professor in the Department of Theology at the University of Notre Dame and currently serves as Senior Advisor of the Notre Dame Center for Liturgy.

His work has primarily explored how the Church's lex credendi (law of belief) is founded upon the Church's lex orandi (law of prayer).

KEYNOTE LECTURE

Aidan Kavanagh defined liturgy as “doing the world the way it was meant to be done.” This series of talks will eventually come to a definition of liturgy, but it will begin with a doctrine of creation and see all of life through a Eucharistic lens. What place did God intend for man and woman in the world? What went wrong? How is our life restored? What is the Church doing to discover true reality?

On the first day we will consider creation as a cosmic liturgy, over which man and woman were intended to preside. Our second day will be a look at sin and the damaged relationship between humanity and God. Day three will invite us to see Christ as the premiere liturgist, restoring to us a eucharistic posture. As second Adam, He did what the first Adam failed to do. And this has not ended with his resurrection and ascension, but continues in his Church, as he animates his Mystical Body.

On our final day we will apply liturgical theology to our life in the world. How do we receive life as a gift, and find the world to be sacrament? How does liturgy establish social justice? How can we see all of life in the light of Mt. Tabor?

The Summer Conference icon written by Brother Claude Lane, O.S.B.

WHAT IS SUMMER CONFERENCE?

For 31 years the Summer Conference has provided us with time for reflection and renewal. Our hope is to explore ways to live out the Gospel in our families and communities by coming together each year to listen to and discuss deep theological truths inspired by the honest work of thoughtful theologians from around the world.

Each year a keynote speaker and a theme are chosen to help us explore how we can make holy our chosen roles as parents, teachers, business owners and employees.

SUMMER CONFERENCE GOALS

- Provide clergy, religious and lay people of all ages an opportunity to deepen their faith through study, prayer, art and play in a communal setting.
- Expose participants to outstanding theologians and inspiring people of faith.
- Model a Catholic faith-based community.
- Seek to understand more honestly the mystery of God and the mystery of person within the community of Catholic faith and the world.

HISTORY OF SUMMER CONFERENCE

The Summer Conference, originally known as the Mount Angel Summer Conference, was hosted by Mount Angel Abbey for the first 25 years beginning in 1983. In 2007, after 25 years of vision and leadership, the founders of the Conference handed the reigns to long-time Conference participants who formed Engelberg Conference, a non-profit organization, and re-initiated the Summer Conference in its new location at the University of Portland in 2008. The Conference continues to maintain ties to Mount Angel Abbey, and the Benedictine philosophy of integrating work and prayer permeates our activities at Summer Conference.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Conference begins on Wednesday with registration from 2:00-4:30 p.m. and concludes with Mass on Sunday. The days in between are filled with a variety of study, prayer, and play for all ages.

Residence facilities are available with three meals a day provided by the University of Portland. Day-use facilities are also available for commuters -with or without meals. Guests may also choose to come to the Keynote Lecture Series only. (See costs on page 2).

To register for the Conference or Lecture Series, please mail in the registration form (from page 3 of this brochure or go online) by July 1, 2013. This information and more is available online at www.summerconferenceportland.org.

CLASS DESCRIPTIONS

Adult Classes

PERIOD A

1. KEYNOTE ADDRESS

David Fagerberg

-See front page for more information.

PERIOD B

2. DIALOGUE WITH DAVID FAGERBERG

David Fagerberg

An opportunity for additional exploration of the specific topics presented in the keynote talk through discussion in a small group setting.

3. KNOWING SELF, KNOWING GOD

Bill Zuelke

This class will explore the interrelationship between our own self knowledge and our perceptions and constructs (knowledge) of God. Using reflective exercises and story telling within the classroom, as well as content provided by the instructor, participants will actively explore and articulate their own sense of self and of God and how these elements connect with each other.

4. RUNNING INTO THE ARMS OF GOD: UNDERSTANDING PRAYER AS STORY AND STORY AS PRAYER

Fr. Pat Hannon, C.S.C.

We will explore the experience of prayer as the hearing and telling of stories. Recognizing that Jesus often used story and parable as the primary pedagogical tool for explaining who God is, who we are, and what the Kingdom of God is, we will explore the powerful effect of stories in our spiritual lives and how they draw us more deeply than anything else into the mystery of God.

PERIOD C

5. STORIES FROM THE SYNOD IN THE YEAR OF FAITH

Fr. Jeremy Driscoll, O.S.B.

Fr. Jeremy was one of 45 theologians from every part of the world named by Pope Benedict to assist the 250 bishops from around the world who gathered in Rome last October for a three-week-long meeting called a Synod. This class explains with pictures and personal stories how a Church Synod functions and how this one in particular functioned. This Synod marked the 50th anniversary of the opening of Vatican Council II. Fr. Jeremy will explain some of the principle themes that the bishops spoke about during the Synod and how these themes can inspire our own renewed engagement in the life of faith.

6. THE SPIRITUALITY OF BREAD

Sr. Mary Jo Chaves, OSF

This will be a "hands-on" class in the art of making bread and enjoying the bread we have baked. We will explore the spirituality of bread as a parable for God's work in our lives that enables us to break the bread of our lives for others.

7. THE GOOD NEWS OF BRUCE

Andy Oldham

Bruce Springsteen, an iconic American performer and songwriter, has reached the hearts and lives of millions around the world with his music. A lapsed Catholic, Bruce still stands on the stairs of the Church looking in and invites others to do the same. We will explore how his entire body of work is rooted in the gospel message of salvation for all. Each song, each performance again and again proclaims loudly that no matter how dark and messy our lives and our world gets, hope and redemption are real and possible. We will listen, view, talk, and reflect. Gr. 10 and up.

* This is correct! This class is incorrectly shown in Per. B in the printed brochure. Our mistake!

Intergenerational Classes

PERIOD B

8. BATIK

Ina Hecker

Batik, originating from the island of Java, is a cloth painting technic that traditionally uses a wax-resist dyeing technique to create elaborate designs on fabric. We will do a small simple project using beeswax and cold dyes. Gr. 5 and up. $10.00 lab fee.

9. YOGA: THE JOY OF MOVEMENT

Tara Piccolo

Come join Tara as she guides us through an uplifting yoga practice with a spirit of play, rejuvenation, and joyful movement! Yoga is a wonderful way to reconnect with our bodies while improving strength, flexibility, and peace of mind. This is a gentle yoga class ideal for beginners and experienced yogis alike and good for all ages and fitness levels so everyone can enjoy and benefit. Gr. 10 and up.

10. WALKING AND TALKING THE BLUFF

David Otto

A guided exploration of the campus and its environs, looking at the geological, biological, cultural, architectural/design and ecological aspects of the landscape and UP's plans for sound development of The Bluff. Participants will receive brief on-the-trail talks, a map and informational notes to help them interpret and discuss what they see on three 1-2 mile excursions through the campus and surrounding neighborhoods. Gr. 5 and up.

11. PAPER WITH A PURPOSE

Cecelia Guinee and Becca Otto

Explore making bowls and platters with paper maché. We will make refined, utilitarian objects while discovering the beauty and versatility of paper maché. Gr. 5 and up. $5.00 lab fee.

PERIOD C

12. WATERCOLORS

Doug Cooper

Explore and enjoy the basic techniques of painting with watercolors. We will play with different paper types, washes, wet and dry brush techniques to unlock the beauty and flexibility of watercolors. All you need is curiosity and a willingness to explore. No experience required. Gr. 3 and up. $5.00 lab fee.

13. CATCHING FIREFLIES: CONFERENCE YEARBOOK

Karyn Andriesen and Jen Furl

Calling all writers, poets, cartoonists, would-be journalists and photographers--doodlers and dabblers included! Does Summer Conference inspire you? Do you want to know more about your fellow participants? If you have a story to tell, or would like to help capture the spirit of this summer's conference, join us! We'll do some writing/drawing, discussing, interviewing and recording as we work together to chronicle Summer Conference in both print and audio to share at the end of the conference. Gr.5 and up.

14. TENNIS ANYONE?

Susie Campbell-Gross and Aaron Gross

For anyone who wants to try tennis for the first time or wants to improve their tennis skills. This will be a class that involves all participants. Come join us! Bring a racquet if you have one! Gr.2 and up.

15. KICKIN' IT IN KARATE

Nick Danielson

We will learn the basics of Kenpo Karate—a martial art that focuses on forms using blocks, strikes, and self-defense—as well as getting a workout and having fun. Whether you are an experienced martial artist or a complete beginner feel free to sign up! Gr. 5 and up.

"It is said that the Gospel of John is a book in which 'a child can wade and an elephant can swim.' In a very similar way, the Summer Conference entertains and enculturates my grade school child, challenges and inspires my teenage children, while it informs, reforms and transforms my wife and me. Summer Conference is the highlight of our year." -participant
