A RETREAT FOR ALL AGES SET ON THE BEAUTIFUL CAMPUS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PORTLAND

KEYNOTE SPEAKER AND CONFERENCE THEME

The 2015
Keynote
Speaker,
Fr. John C.
Haughey,
S. J.

Fr. John C. Haughey, S.J. holds a Doctorate in Sacred Theology from The Catholic University of America. He was a professor of religious ethics at Loyola University Chicago from 1990-2004, he taught at Georgetown and Fordham Universities and has had held chairs at Marquette, John Carroll and Seton Hall Universities.

More recently Fr. Haughey was a senior fellow at The Woodstock Theological Center in Washington, DC in the Science and Religion program and in the Arrupe Program in Social Ethics for Business before its closing in 2013. Since the closing of the center he has resided at the Colombiere Jesuit Center in Baltimore, Maryland.

Much of Fr. Haughey's work has been concentrated on the role of Catholic higher education and its engagement in the Catholic intellectual tradition. Another area of interest includes the Holy Spirit. In 2007 he received the Monika K. Hellwig Award "for outstanding contributions to Catholic Higher Education" from the National Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities.

He served as an Associate and Corresponding Editor for America magazine. And for 17 years he was an appointee of the Vatican's Council on Christian Unity as a member of its international dialogues with Pentecostalism and World Evangelical Alliance.

He is the author of many books including his latest book, A Biography of the Spirit (ORBIS 2015) which was published in March.

In 2014 Fr. Haughey co-edited Humanity on the Threshold: Religious Perspectives on Transhumanism (The Council for Research in Values and Philosophy) with Ilia Delio, O.S.F. With eight other scholars, the book examines the Catholic intellectual response to the transhumanist premise that technology and science may make the promises of religions obsolete.

His other books include: Where Is Knowing Going? The Horizons of the Knowing Subject (Georgetown University Press), Revisiting the Idea of Vocation (Editor, Catholic University Press, 2004), Housing Heaven's Fire: The Challenge of Holiness (Loyola Press, 2002), Virtue and Affluence (Sheed and Ward, 1997), Converting Nine to Five: A Spirituality of Daily Work (Crossroad/Continuum, 1989), The Holy Use of Money: Personal Finances in Light of Christian Faith (Doubleday, 1986), and The Conspiracy of God; The Holy Spirit in Us (Doubleday, 1973.)

KEYNOTE LECTURE AND CONFERENCE THEME

For the keynote address, Fr. Haughey would like to continue with what he started in his book A Biography of the Spirit, which is to see how our Creedal belief that the Spirit is "the Lord and Giver of Life" might deepen our faith, hope and love of God. His hope is to help us see how the Spirit and nature, whether understood through science or just plain old attention, can bring us to a freshened spirituality.

The Summer Conference icon written by Brother Claude Lane, O.S.B.

WHAT IS SUMMER CONFERENCE?

For 33 years the Summer Conference has provided us with time for reflection and renewal. Our hope is to explore ways to live out the Gospel in our families and communities by coming together each year to listen to and discuss deep theological truths inspired by the honest work of thoughtful theologians from around the world.

Each year a keynote speaker and a theme are chosen to help us explore how we can make holy our chosen roles as parents, teachers, business owners and employees.

SUMMER CONFERENCE GOALS

- Provide clergy, religious and lay people of all ages an opportunity to deepen their faith through study, prayer, art and play in a communal setting.
- Expose participants to outstanding theologians and inspiring people of faith.
- Model a Catholic faith-based community.
- Seek to understand the mystery of God and the mystery of person within the community of Catholic faith and the world.

HISTORY OF SUMMER CONFERENCE

The Summer Conference, originally known as the Mount Angel Summer Conference, was hosted by Mount Angel Abbey for the first 25 years beginning in 1983. In 2007, after 25 years of vision and leadership, the founders of the Conference handed the reigns to long-time Conference participants who formed Engelberg Conference, a non-profit organization, and re-initiated the Summer Conference in its new location at the University of Portland in 2008. The Conference continues to maintain ties to Mount Angel Abbey, and the Benedictine philosophy of integrating work and prayer permeates our activities at Summer Conference.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Conference begins on Wednesday with registration from 2:00-4:30 p.m. and concludes with Mass on Sunday. The days in between are filled with a variety of study, prayer, and play for all ages.

Residence facilities are available with three meals a day provided by the University of Portland. Day-use facilities are also available for commuters -with or without meals. Guests may also choose to come to the Keynote Lecture Series only. (See costs on page 2).

To register for the Conference or lecture series, please mail in the registration form (from page 3 of this brochure or go online) by July 1, 2015. This information and more is available online at www.summerconferenceportland.org.

It's a tradition... Just Jeremy

Saturday at 7 p.m.,

Fr. Jeremy will meet with young adults (college age and older) to discuss their hopes and concerns about the Church, the world, and their own futures. Come and catch up!

And Just Service -a new class dedicated to serving others.

YOUNG ADULTS

CLASS DESCRIPTIONS

Adult Classes

PERIOD A

1. KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Fr. John Haughey, S.J.

See front page for more information.

PERIOD B

2. DEEP HORIZONS

Mimi Schaefer

Starting with favorite insights from the morning keynote address, we will use writing and discussion to connect ideas/new information, faith and prayer.

3. ST. FRANCIS PRAYER FOR PEACE: A CALL TO BEING A 21ST CENTURY PEACEMAKER

Sr. Mary Jo Chaves, O.S.F.

This class will be an in-depth look at the Peace Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi from the perspective of being called to be peacemakers in our time whether we be in our homes, workplaces or the world community. We will include reflections on Pope Francis's writings about peacemaking.

4. PHILOSOPHY, AGAPE, AND SOCIAL JUSTICE

Dr. Lara Trout

We will use the philosophy of Charles Sanders Peirce, as well as other social critical thinkers, to explore how those in socio-politically dominant groups can unintentionally promote discrimination towards those in non-dominant groups.

5. A CHANGE OF HEART AND HEARTS FOR CHANGE: SPIRITUAL RESOURCES FOR THE DAZED AND THE DARING

Tom Frieberg

The needs of the world are immense and often it's hard to know where to begin. Then, once we've begun, we wonder how and when to stop and take a breath. But our talents, gifts and relative privilege are also great. These blessings compel us to do what we can. But then there is our job, our family, our health, our friends. This class will explore the interplay between them all: the changes we want to see in the world; the changes occurring in our personal lives (wanted or unwanted), and the changes for our spiritual practice that might help us with the other two.

PERIOD C

6. IGNITING OUR SPIRITUAL IMAGINATIONS VIA THE SAINT JOHN'S BIBLE

Karen Eifler and Beth Barsotti

Using medieval materials and 21st century compositional tools, British royal calligrapher Donald Jackson and his team of artists created the first fully hand-rendered, illuminated Bible manuscript crafted since the invention of the printing press. This seven volume set is known now as The Saint John's Bible. This class will offer guided exploration and contemplative experiences of prayer employing some of the images this magnificent work owned by UofP.

7. SCIENCE AND RELIGION- WHY THE TENSION? A MONK AND A SCIENTIST DISCUSS THE QUESTION

Fr. Jeremy Driscoll, O.S.B. and Ricardo Letelier

The birth of modern science, with its focus on knowledge based on experience and reason, seems to have created a rift between the study of nature and theology. However, through the study of God's creation Christianity encourages and nurtures the development and advancement of science. In this class we will explore the origin and nature of this apparent rift, discuss the doctrine of the Church on scientific research, and share how a monk and a scientist perceive the tension between religion and science. The class will be an open dialogue between participants with a selection of brief readings to serve as the foundation for our discussion.

8. DIALOGUE

Fr. John Haughey, S.J.

An opportunity for additional exploration of the specific topics presented in the keynote talk through discussion in a small group setting.

9. JUST SERVICE

Jessie Heying and Julie (Brand) Conroy

Young adults ages 18-26 are invited to join together to provide service at three different community partners in the Portland area. Continue to develop your relationship with God while serving, both directly and indirectly, those who are marginalized within our world. Space is limited to the first eight young adults; additional space may be available on a first-come, first served basis.

10. SACRED SPACE: WALKING THE LABYRINTH AND INDIVIDUAL SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

Sr. Mary Jo Chaves OSF and Val Hornburg

The labyrinth, a walking meditation that gives you an opportunity to reflect on your life, will be available during this class period and Sr. Mary Jo will be available for individual spiritual direction to share your faith journey in a confidential environment. No previous experience is needed. Explanations for both will be provided.

Intergenerational Classes

PERIOD B

11. EXERCISE FOR LIFE

Dan Blaufus and Amanda Blaufus

We will explore the physiological and psychological benefits of exercise, eating right and connecting/committing to community as a means of delaying aging, fighting off disease, and improving your energy and quality of life. The class will blend instruction and inspiration from the bestselling book Younger Next Year by Chris Crowley and Dr. Henry Lodge, with light exercise. Each student will receive their own copy.

12. GLASS TILE MOSAICS

Bill Zuelke and Noelle Zuelke

Every student will learn the art of making mosaics, from design to production to presentation. All instruction and supplies provided. Gr. 10 and up. (Gr. 7-9 welcome with a parent, working together on one project.) $5 fee.

13. FROSTING FUNDAMENTALS

Claire Hauge

Tap into your inner pastry chef as we explore the basics of cake decorating using a variety of decorating tips to learn how to pipe, write, do borders, drop flowers and construct flowers. Each student will decorate their own single layer cake. Gr. 5 and up. $5 fee.

14. BATIK ON PAPER

Ina Hecker

In this class we will use beeswax on watercolor paper to create beautiful and unexpected designs with the successive application of color dyes, watercolors, tempera and ink to create our own masterpieces. Gr. 5 and up. $5 fee.

PERIOD C

15. DAILY BLUFFING

Peter Weber and Paul Vanderwal

Come help create the next platform for chronicling Summer Conference, prospectively titled The Daily Bluff. We'll publish a daily companion to conference life. Bring your whimsy, your sense of humor, curiosity, storytelling, artistic talents, and, if you want, your camera. Gr. 5 and up.

16. TENNIS ANYONE?

Susie Campbell Gross and Aaron Gross

For anyone who wants to try tennis for the first time or wants to improve their tennis skills. This will be a class that involves all participants. Come join us! Bring a racquet if you have one. Gr. 2 and up.

17. BASKET WEAVING

Toni Cooper

Learn the basics of basket-making while creating two or three different baskets. Fun for all! Gr. 5 and up. $5 fee.

18. AFTERNOON STRETCHING/ YOGA

TBA

19. PRINTMAKING

Doug Cooper

We will do relief printmaking, using linoleum and wood as our base material. Tools, supplies and equipment will be supplied. We will be working with sharp tools, so care and attention will be needed. Gr. 8 and up. $5 fee.

Children's Classes

PERIOD A

20. KEYNOTE INFANT CARE

Tara Picollo Ludwig and Annette Herboth

21. PROMISE A (PRE K-GR. 1)

Anita Klee and Zach Silva

22. KARING KIDS A (GR. 2-4)

27. KARING KIDS B (GR. 2-4)

Tara Barsotti and Estela Geniza

28. FUN GAMES AND UNGAMES

Zach Zaremba

Come play a variety of indoor and outdoor games in new and creative ways! Having fun is the only rule and winning is dependent on good communication, attitude, and perseverance within the whole group. Gr. 5 and up.

PERIOD C

29. MONICA'S MAGICAL MERRIMENT

Monica DeBruyn

Enjoy a variety of fun projects and activities. Make toys to bring home or gifts for friends and family. Gr. 2 and up.

30. FLING'N THINGS

David Otto

We will play with ways to launch light-weight objects safely to study motion with cameras, stopwatches, or simple scopes and instruments to experience their movement when catapulted, dropped, rolled, rocketed, swung, and spun. Our investigations will feel like play rather than school. *No stuffed animals will be harmed during the class. Gr. 2 and up. $5 fee.

31. COZY CORNER

Bobbie Weber and Jane Sprague

Two conference grandmas will create a warm and relatively quiet space toward the end of a busy day for children to share in stories, face-painting and other activities. Bring your favorite books, poems or jokes to share and of course your pillows and blankets! All ages welcome. (Children under 2 with a parent.)
