

The 36th Annual
Summer Conference

Building the Church

WHISPERING VOICES MADE AUDIBLE
 THE MAJOR IMPORTANCE OF MINOR BIBLICAL CHARACTERS

JULY 25-29, 2018

A RETREAT FOR ALL AGES SET ON THE BEAUTIFUL CAMPUS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PORTLAND

“The Conference is one of the highlights of our year—actually, one of the highlights of our lives!” -a 2017 participant

2018 KEYNOTE AND CONFERENCE THEME

The focus of this year’s conference turns attention to the minor biblical characters — “servants,” “laborers,” “merchants,” “virgin daughters,” etc. — in the biblical narrative. It offers a more inclusive approach to reading our sacred texts that resists the caste system embedded in the narrative and its relationship to the caste system in our world. Prolonged interpretative attention to these minor biblical characters not only renders them important but often discloses instructive examples of self-giving, loyalty and friendship, as well as real occasions of vulnerability, violence and degradation that are right before our eyes — both in the text and in our communities. At this juncture in our human history, it seems prudent that we dare not ignore or read past such examples.

2018 KEYNOTE SPEAKER: DR. GINA HENS-PIAZZA

Gina Hens-Piazza, Ph.D.

Gina Hens-Piazza, Ph.D. holds the Joseph C. Alemany Endowed Chair as Professor of Biblical Studies at the Jesuit School of Theology of Santa Clara University which is part of the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley, California. She earned her doctorate in Biblical Studies from Union Theological Seminary in NYC before assuming her current academic position in Berkeley 25 years ago. Hens-Piazza is the author of numerous articles, five books, and her current project (Supporting Cast vs Supporting Caste) which sets forth literary theory, method and examples for reading minor biblical characters. In addition, she currently serves as co-editor of the upcoming New Jerome Biblical Commentary for the 21st Century (forthcoming 2019, Bloomsbury Press).

Hens-Piazza is a frequent lecturer nationally and internationally on topics of women and issues in social justice and her work has been recognized by various associations. Among these honors, Hens-Piazza was the third recipient of the National Sarlo Teaching Award for excellence in teaching and scholarship; she has been named by her colleagues as the GTU Distinguished Faculty Lecturer; her work on violence in Joshua and Judges has been recognized by the Catholic Press Association; and two years ago, Hens-Piazza was chosen to participate in the Faculty Development Seminar at five Palestinian Universities by the Palestinian American Research Center in Washington, D. C.

WHAT IS SUMMER CONFERENCE?

For 36 years the Summer Conference has provided us with time for reflection and renewal. We come together each year to explore ways to live out the Gospel in our families and our communities. A keynote speaker and a theme are chosen to help us ponder how we can make holy our chosen roles as parents, teachers, students, community volunteers, business owners and employees. We delve into study and discussion of deep theology presented by outstanding theologians from near and far. We are inspired by ideas presented in a variety of classes. We have fun, enjoying recreation and conversation with other participants, new and old, throughout the days of the conference.

HISTORY OF SUMMER CONFERENCE

The Summer Conference, originally known as the Mount Angel Summer Conference, was hosted by Mount Angel Abbey for the first

25 years beginning in 1983. In 2007, after 25 years of vision and leadership, the founders of the Conference handed the reins to long-time Conference participants who formed Engelberg Conference, a non-profit organization, and re-initiated the Summer Conference in its new location at the University of Portland in 2008. The Conference continues to maintain ties to Mount Angel Abbey, and the Benedictine philosophy of integrating work and prayer permeates our activities at Summer Conference.

SUMMER CONFERENCE GOALS

- Provide clergy, religious and lay people of all ages an opportunity to deepen their faith through study, prayer, art and play in a communal setting.
- Expose participants to outstanding theologians and inspiring people of faith.
- Model a Catholic faith-based community.
- Seek to understand the mystery of God and the mystery of person within the community of Catholic faith and the world.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Conference begins on Wednesday with registration from 2-4:30 p.m. and concludes with Mass on Sunday. The days are filled with a variety of study, prayer, and play for all ages. Residence facilities are available with three meals a day provided by the University of Portland. Day-use facilities are also available for commuters -with or without meals. Guests may also choose to come to the Keynote Lecture Series only. (See costs on page 2). To register for the Conference or Lecture Series, please mail in your registration by July 1 or go online to www.summerconferenceportland.org.

CLASS DESCRIPTIONS

Adult Classes

PERIOD A

1. KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Dr. Gina Hens-Piazza

See front page for more information.

PERIOD B

2. DIALOGUE WITH KEYNOTER

Dr. Gina Hens-Piazza

An opportunity for additional exploration of topics presented in the keynote talk through discussion in a small group setting.

3. PART I: MOTHER CHURCH – LOVE HER OR???

Archbishop John Vlazny (THURS & FRI)

We will talk about the Church — “Without the Church there is no Eucharist; without the Eucharist there is no Church” as Pope Benedict reminded us.

PART II: THE EUCHARISTIC PRAYER UNCOVERED

Abbot Jeremy Driscoll (SAT & SUN)

In its official introduction, the Roman Missal used to celebrate the Mass identifies and succinctly describes eight different parts of the Eucharistic Prayer. We will read those descriptions together and open up their depths. Then we will move through a Eucharistic Prayer and learn to identify the different parts. All this is with a view toward our enhanced participation in this vital part of the Mass.

4. CONNECTING WITH GOD

Beth Barsotti and Molly Buccola

Being nudged to jumpstart or refresh your prayer life or create intentional space for God? Come explore and experience a variety of spiritual practices to center yourself and connect with God.

5. CATCHING A GLIMPSE; REFLECTIVE WRITING

Mimi Schaefer

Take a second look at the startling ideas, questions or insights from the keynote address or other classes and experiences in your day. Sparked by writing and small group discussion, this class offers a time to slow down and catch a glimpse of grace given and received

PERIOD C

6. POPE FRANCIS AND THE FIVE POPES BEFORE HIM

Don Clarke

This class will look at a history of the popes from Pope John XXIII in 1958 to Pope Francis today. We will listen to stories, read Papal Documents and look at the culture that has brought the Catholic Church to the summer of 2018. Class will include a little night time reading, stories and walks down memory lane and sharing.

7. KEEPING THE FAITH: BEING FED BY SACRED SCRIPTURE, SACRED ART AND ST. BENEDICT

Barb Anderson

In this class, each day will focus on a different theme, such as faith, suffering, and accepting love. Together we will read, pray, and discuss Scripture passages which fit that theme; look at art which illustrates that theme; and examine passages in the Rule of St. Benedict which echo that theme.

8. THE CATHOLIC EXPERIENCE IN THE UNITED STATES

Ian Berge and Nick Hegwood

In this class we will focus on the attitudes toward the Church in the United States with a particular focus on the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Using primary sources from the time, we will discuss how Catholics in this country faced discrimination and an overall suspicion of their loyalty to their country. We will use this as a foundation for a larger discussion of our modern times.

9. LOVING DISCIPLINE

Andy Oldham

Whether a parent, teacher, mentor or coach (or all the above) this class will examine how we interact with our youth, through both action and inaction, to guide their emergence into healthy and loving adults. We will reference Taking Charge by Joann Nordling.

Intergenerational Classes

PERIOD B

10. THE DAILY BLUFF

Peter Weber

Come help us continue chronicling Summer Conference. We'll find the stories and publish a daily companion to our shared Conference life. Bring your whimsy, your sense of humor, your curiosity, your storytelling, your artistic talents and, if you want, your camera. All skill levels welcome. Gr. 5 and up.

11. MOSIACS

Bill Zuelke

Come learn the art of mosaics, from design to production to presentation. All supplies provided. Gr. 5 and up. $5 fee.

12. PSYANKY EGGS

Ina Hecker

Pysanky are Easter eggs decorated with traditional Ukrainian folk designs using a wax resist method. The designs are not painted on, but written on the egg with beeswax and then cold died several times for dramatic and beautiful results- much like batik on cloth. We will learn the traditional symbolism while practicing the great virtue of PATIENCE. Gr. 5 and up. $10 fee.

13. YOGA FOR EVERYONE

Noel Tenoso

After spending time sitting, listening and thinking about inspirational topics, come to this yoga class focusing on accessible yoga poses and stretches to unwind and undo all the muscle tightness associated with sitting. We will work on simple stretches and movements that incorporate breathing in a more meditative approach to movement. Gr. 8 and up.

PERIOD C

14. ZENTANGLE ART

Deb Thompson

The Zentangle Method is an easy-to-learn, relaxing and fun way to create beautiful images by drawing structured patterns. Almost anyone can use it to create beautiful images. It increases focus and creativity, provides artistic satisfaction along with an increased sense of personal well-being. Each student will be given a Zentangle kit that can be taken home at the conclusion of the class. Gr. 5 and up. $10 fee

15. NEEDLES-N-THINGS

Anita Klee

Fun embroidery for beginners! We'll learn some basic stitches and work on projects to explore the wonderful world of stitchery through colorful, fun and playful stitch “doodling.” Gr. 2 and up. $5 fee

16. TENNIS ANYONE?

Susie Campbell

For anyone who wants to try tennis for the first time or wants to improve their tennis skills. This is a class that involves all participants. Come join us! Bring a racquet if you have one! Gr. 2 and up.

17. WORK THAT BODY

Amy Schenk

Come move your body as we explore various genres of dance. See how dance can be more than just a physical workout but also a chance to express yourself, calm your mind, and have fun. We will incorporate ballet and jazz and dance where the spirit guides us. Please wear comfortable clothes you can move in. Gr. 8 and up.

18. EXPLORING WATERCOLORS

Meeghan and Brendan Hart

Explore and enjoy the basic techniques of painting with watercolors. We will play with different paper types, washes, wet and dry brush techniques to unlock the beauty and flexibility of watercolors. All you need is curiosity and a willingness to explore. No experience required. Gr. 5 and up. $10 fee.
