KEYNOTE SPEAKER AND CONFERENCE THEME

The 2014
Keynote
Speaker,
Fr. Stephen
Rowan,
Ph.D.

A former keynoter and presenter at the Summer Conference, Father Rowan is eager to return to share his thoughts on “The Joy of the Gospel: The Vision of Pope Francis For the Church.”

A priest of the Archdiocese of Seattle and superintendent for Catholic schools in Seattle, Fr. Rowan was ordained in 1970 and has served in Catholic education since. He is a professor of English, with special interests in the Bible as literature, Dante’s Divine Comedy, and Shakespeare. He has held several administrative positions including Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Seattle University and the University of Portland and President of Carroll College in Montana. While vicar for education for the Archdiocese of Seattle, Fr. Rowan oversaw formation programs for deacons and lay ministers and a program of continuing formation for priests. He also served as Chair of the Board for the Fulcrum Foundation, which provides tuition assistance and financial support for Catholic schools in the Archdiocese of Seattle.

Father Rowan holds a doctorate from the University of British Columbia and an honorary doctorate from St. Martin’s University.

KEYNOTE LECTURE AND CONFERENCE THEME

Pope Francis has captured the imagination of many people throughout the world because of his simplicity of life, his commitment to the poor and people on the margins, and his memorable way of framing his message. What is he saying- in deeds as well as words - and what is his vision for the church today?

The focus of the presentations will be Pope Francis’s exhortation, “The Joy of the Gospel” (Evangelii Gaudium), showing how his vision is grounded in the thinking of John XXIII and the Second Vatican Council and the extraordinary work of Francis’s predecessors: Paul VI, John Paul II, and Benedict XVI. The exhortation sums up a deepening reflection over the past 50 years on the call for the church to undertake a “new evangelization” in the world and how that work can be done effectively.

The keynotes are arranged as follows:

1. Pope Francis in context: The Second Vatican Council, the call for a new evangelization, and the missionary work of Paul VI.

2. “The Joy of the Gospel”:
The call to “go forth” in the face of challenges without (in the world) and within (in the heart of the missionary): Evangelii Gaudium, chapters 1 and 2.

3. Resources for renewing the faith within the church and the missionary impulse for a new evangelization: Evangelii Gaudium, chapters 3 and 5.

4. A renewed commitment to the world, to peace, and the common good: Evangelii Gaudium, chapter 4.

WHAT IS SUMMER CONFERENCE?

For 32 years the Summer Conference has provided us with time for reflection and renewal. Our hope is to explore ways to live out the Gospel in our families and communities by coming together each year to listen to and discuss deep theological truths inspired by the honest work of thoughtful theologians from around the world.

Each year a keynote speaker and a theme are chosen to help us explore how we can make holy our chosen roles as parents, teachers, business owners and employees.

SUMMER CONFERENCE GOALS

- Provide clergy, religious and lay people of all ages an opportunity to deepen their faith through study, prayer, art and play in a communal setting.
- Expose participants to outstanding theologians and inspiring people of faith.
- Model a Catholic faith-based community.
- Seek to understand more honestly the mystery of God and the mystery of person within the community of Catholic faith and the world.

HISTORY OF SUMMER CONFERENCE

The Summer Conference, originally known as the Mount Angel Summer Conference, was hosted by Mount Angel Abbey for the first 25 years beginning in 1983. In 2007, after 25 years of vision and leadership, the founders of the Conference handed the reigns to long-time Conference participants who formed Engelberg Conference, a non-profit organization, and re-initiated the Summer Conference in its new location at the University of Portland in 2008. The Conference continues to maintain ties to Mount Angel Abbey, and the Benedictine philosophy of integrating work and prayer permeates our activities at Summer Conference.

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Conference begins on Wednesday with registration from 2:00-4:30 p.m. and concludes with Mass on Sunday. The days in between are filled with a variety of study, prayer, and play for all ages.

Residence facilities are available with three meals a day provided by the University of Portland. Day-use facilities are also available for commuters -with or without meals. Guests may also choose to come to the Keynote Lecture Series only. (See costs on page 2).

To register for the Conference or Lecture Series, please mail in the registration form (from page 3 of this brochure or go online) by July 1, 2014. This information and more is available online at www.summerconferenceportland.org.

CLASS DESCRIPTIONS

Adult Classes

PERIOD A

1. KEYNOTE ADDRESS

Fr. Stephen Rowan, Ph.D.

See front page for more information.

PERIOD B

2. DIALOGUE WITH FR. ROWAN

Fr. Stephan Rowan, Ph.D.

An opportunity for additional exploration of the specific topics presented in the keynote talk through discussion in a small group setting.

3. SPIRITUAL DIRECTION: COMPANIONSHIP ON ONE'S SPIRITUAL JOURNEY

Sr. Mary Jo Chaves

This class will be an introduction to spiritual direction as companionship on one's spiritual journey. Participants will have the opportunity to engage in diverse forms of spiritual direction both as individuals and in groups.

4. A LOOK INTO THE LIFE OF THOMAS MERTON – A PROPHET AHEAD OF HIS TIME

Sue Grady

This class will explore the American Catholic writer and mystic, Thomas Merton (1915-1968) – a Trappist monk, a poet, a social activist, and a student of comparative religion in a time when interfaith/Ecumenical dialog was non-existent. He wrote more than 70 books, mostly on spirituality, social justice, and quiet pacifism, as well as scores of essays and reviews, including his best-selling autobiography "The Seven Story Mountain."

PERIOD C

5. "A MONK'S ALPHABET" AND THE JOY OF THE GOSPEL IN THE NEW EVANGELIZATION

Fr. Jeremy Driscoll, O.S.B.

Using Fr. Jeremy's book "A Monk's Alphabet", the class will let the passages provoke discussion and try to explain some of Fr. Jeremy's strategies to reach nonbelievers, on-the-fence believers, and questioning believers with the art of writing and stories from the monastery. This is a course that will be breezy and fun and accidentally fall into life's bigger questions.

6. EXPLORING AND PRAYING WITH THE ILLUMINATED ST. JOHN'S BIBLE

Beth Barsotti

This class explores the art and beauty of The St. John's Bible in order to ignite our spiritual imaginations. Each day we will pray with a different illumination from the Heritage Edition of the Bible gifted to the University of Portland and generously shared with us. We will learn about the ancient techniques of calligraphy and illumination that the Benedictine community at St. John's University supported in the creation of this Bible.

7. CREATIVITY, PRAYER AND REFLECTION: CREATING SOULCOLLAGE® PRAYER CARDS

Val Hornburg

Explore your response to the invitation to live a more simple life as suggested by Pope Francis. Through this no-fail, creative and intuitive process, we will use sacred images to assemble SoulCollage® prayer cards, journaling with them and using them in prayerful rituals. Get out of your head and listen to your heart!

8. BRINGING EYES OF FAITH TO FILM

Karen Eifler

We will look for--and find--images and instances of grace, transcendence and redemption in the most surprising places: contemporary popular movies. Along the way, we'll explore tools to take with us to the cinema, ruining movies forever (but in a good way). Among the films we'll get glimpses of: "Harry Potter," "WALL-E," and "Ferris Bueller's Day Off."

Intergenerational Classes

PERIOD B

9. STAINED GLASS

Bill Zuelke and Noelle Zuelke

Every student will be provided the instructions and materials to produce one project under one square foot in size. Using copper foil technique, each participant will choose or create a design, select colored glass, learn to cut and grind glass to shape, then foil and solder the pieces. Gr 10 and up. (Gr 7-9 welcome with a parent, working together on one project) $10.00 lab fee.

10. ZUMBA®

Juliet Prosser

If you like high energy, motivating music and have a desire to dance, come join us. You will enjoy both fast paced and slower songs; the moves are easy enough for beginners. Gr. 9 and up.

11. CREATING MEDIEVAL ILLUMINATED MANUSCRIPTS

Ina Hecker

We will explore the art of manuscript illumination as it was done in the medieval times. Starting with a rectangle with a design in the center, we will add grids or floral design. We will then gild some areas before painting around them with pigments and egg in a traditional manner. Students are encouraged to bring simple designs to incorporate in their project. Gr. 5 and up. $10.00 lab fee.

12. OH, GO FLY A KITE (BUT YOU HAVE TO MAKE IT FIRST)

David Otto

We will learn about kite history, basic aerodynamics and winds, and about various kite designs and construction techniques. We will build and test kites out of paper, plastic, fabric, wood or string using your own design or one of the provided patterns -Experiment and be creative and take away a kite you can fly at the beach! No previous experience is necessary. Gr. 5 and up. $10.00 lab fee.

PERIOD C

13. CATCHING FIREFLIES: THE CONFERENCE CHRONICLES

Karyn Andriesen, Michael Danielson, and Toni Cooper

Calling all writers, poets, cartoonists, photographers and would-be journalists--doodlers and dabblers included! Does Summer Conference inspire you? Would like to help capture the spirit of this summer's conference? Join us! Choose your passion ....write, draw, discuss, interview or take photos as we work together to chronicle this year's Summer Conference. Gr. 5 and up.

14. TENNIS ANYONE?

Susie Campbell-Gross and Aaron Gross

For anyone who wants to try tennis for the first time or wants to improve their tennis skills. This will be a class that involves all participants. Come join us! Bring a racquet if you have one! Gr.2 and up.

15. FROSTING FUNDAMENTALS

Claire Hauge

Tap into your inner pastry chef as we explore the basics of cake decorating. We will use a variety of decorating tips and learn how to pipe, write, do borders, drop flowers, and construct flowers. Each student will decorate their own single layer cake. Gr. 5 and up.

16. FITNESS CHALLENGE: FINDING THE CHILD WITHIN OUR MOVEMENT AND PLAY

Noel Tenoso

Not all childish ways were meant to be put away. Come learn (or relearn) to move and regain the strength of your youth using exercise movements such as Original Strength®, Primal Move® and Kettlebell®. These cutting edge body movement exercises will be incorporated into this fun, challenging workout. Athletes to office workers, all are welcome and all will be able to find a level of difficulty that's just right for them. Gr. 5 and up.
